

Teacher of Humanities, Monivae College Hamilton

We are seeking a passionate Humanities teacher with a highly imaginative and progressive attitude towards the subject.

The successful applicant will have an extensive knowledge of the Humanities domain, including History, Geography, Commerce, Business, Economics and Civics. An ability to scaffold thinking and learning strategies and excellent classroom management skills are required.

Explicit experience in the teaching of Geography would be an advantage. See below for additional details:

Teacher of Humanities role description

- A progressive and rigorous approach to curriculum development
- An ability to enhance students' critical thinking, including an understanding of metacognitive strategies
- Extensive knowledge of the Humanities domain and curriculum
- Willingness to take part in ongoing professional development
- Excellent classroom management
- Geography: A thorough understanding of the 7-10 Geography curriculum
- VCE: Any knowledge of Humanities VCE subjects would be an advantage
- The ability to offer quality learning to every student and to challenge students to grow
- The capacity to hold teaching through relationships as a core value

This position is expected to commence Tuesday, 28th January 2020.

Please contact the school registrar, Meg Cook, should you wish to discuss the Teacher of Humanities role or the submission of an Expression of Interest.

Expressions of Interest should be forwarded to school registrar Meg Cook, mcook@monivae.vic.edu.au by Monday 9th September 2019. Please include a resume and single page cover letter outlining your interest in the role and your skills, attributes and experience as relevant to the role, certified copies of transcripts and three referees.